GREETINGS FROM ATLANTA

Hello Explorers!

I'm Audrey and I sing a style of music called jazz. I grew up in a musical household - my mother played piano and organ, and both my parents love to sing. I started off playing piano, but pretty soon I was singing and scatting all over New York City. Now I live in Atlanta, and I have my own musical family - my son plays saxophone in a jazz orchestra! I look forward to seeing you - and scatting with you - at the Lucas Theatre!

Stay swinging!
Audrey
