

Write Your Own Ballad!

Use the stairsteps to write lyrics for three verses of your own ballad.

The graphic organizer consists of three vertical columns of lines, arranged in a descending staircase pattern from left to right. Each column is bounded by a thick orange line on the left and right sides, and a thin black vertical line in the center. The first column is the tallest, the second is shorter, and the third is the shortest.