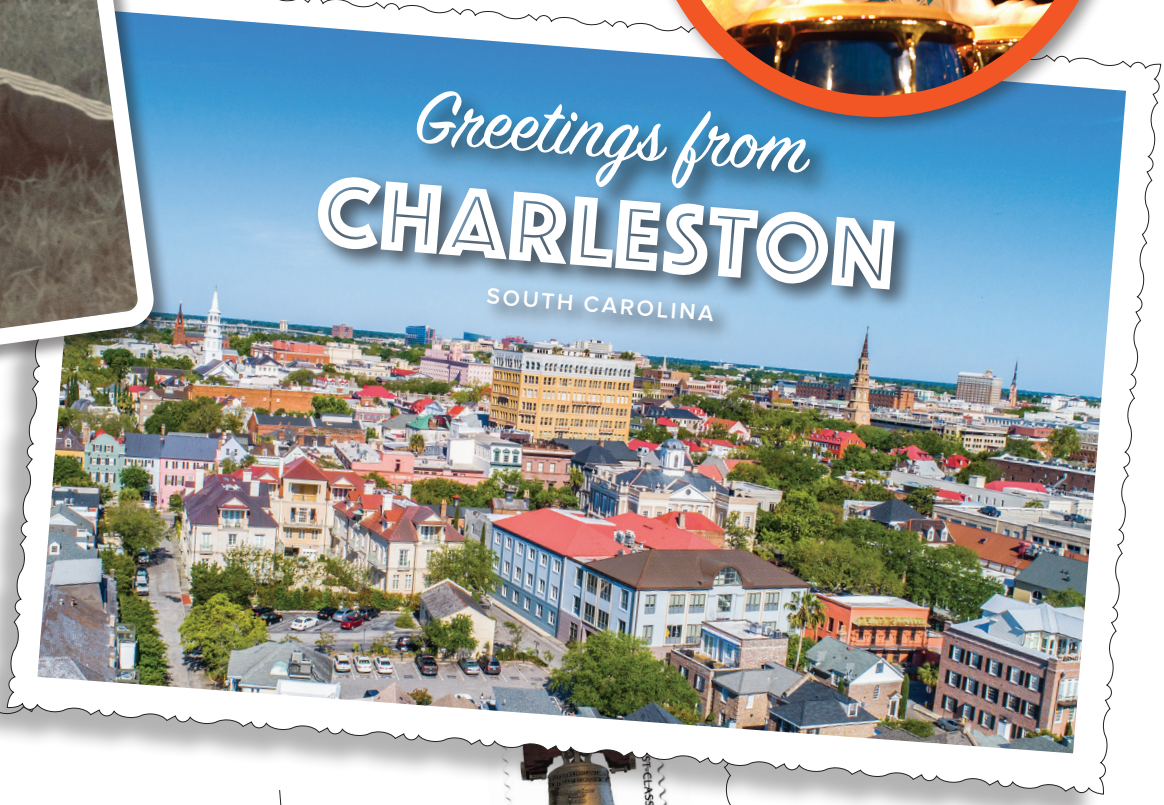
Meet Gino!



!Hola Musical Explorers!

My name is Gino, and I live in Charleston, South Carolina, where I make music with my band the Cuban Cowboys. Even though I grew up in the South American country of Ecuador, I play music that comes from Cuba—salsa! I lead my band from behind the congas—large drums that I play with my hands. Just don't call them bongos - bongos are much, much smaller.

When you listen to salsa, make sure you are wearing the right shoes - salsa is music for dancing!

!Hasta luego!
Gino
