

Learn About the Bodhrán

Harry plays an Irish frame drum called the bodhrán (BOW-ron). The bodhrán is the heartbeat of Irish music. This ancient drum is made with a wooden body and goat-skin head. It is played with a stick called a tipper or beater.

Decorate the bodhrán with shapes and colors. You may also choose to use some of the Irish symbols shown below.

