Meet Amos!

Greetings from Portland, Maine

Hello Musical Explorers!

My name is Amos, and I live in Portland, Maine. I love to sing and play music from many parts of the world. But music from Sicily has a special meaning because that is the tiny island south of Italy where all my family comes from. When I think of Sicily, I think of my grandmother, the music, and the food!

Did you know I speak 7 languages? The songs you'll hear me sing in Sicilian tell stories and share lessons. Even if you don't understand all the words, you will love hearing the emotions and rhythm in Sicilian folk music. That is what it's all about!

Ciau (bye) for now,
Amos
