

Meet Cecilia!

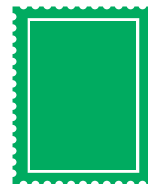

Thân ái chào các em (Hello dear Musical Explorers)!

My name is Cecilia, and I am excited to share music from Vietnam, where my parents were born. I was born in Columbus, GA and grew up here in Savannah. One of my favorite memories from childhood was enjoying family gatherings where there was always an uncle, aunt, or other family member singing and performing. I guess you could say singing has always been a part of my life!

One of the things you'll learn about is the New Year celebration of Tết. I won't reveal too much now, but think of a big wish for this year. Happy New Year, or as they would say in Vietnam, chúc mừng năm mới!

See you at the concert,
Cecilia
